

Journal of Librarianship and Information Science (JOLIS) is the peer-reviewed international quarterly journal for librarians, information scientists, specialists, managers and educators interested in keeping up to date with the most recent issues and developments in the field.

This journal is a member of the Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE).

Publisher: SAGE Journals read more